Rules and regulation of parents Teacher Association

The role of education for the betterment of the society cannot be neglected. In order to function effectively for the students welfare , It is important for the both teachers and parents come together. This is well achieved by the parent teacher association (P.T.A) in school. The importance of the PTA cannot be given a deaf ear. DECENT CONVENT SCHOOL in Chhandran understand this aspects and offers parent teacher association.

Aim and objectives of PTA in DCS (resolutions)

1. The main objectives of the PTA is to enhance and improve the children's learning experience.
2. The member of PTA meet once in a month for purpose of assessing teachers, school system concerning academic, cultural, social and ethical improvement and moral standard of the school.
3. PTA is mainly formed for a basic reason of taking into account the welfare and education of the learner's parents and teachers study ways and means of bringing up well educated co- operative and perfectly behaved young citizens for the education. Both parents and teachers seek effective ways to developing each child's potentials
 - In order to help the school and its purpose , parents play some important roles, which include-

- To give support, physically and financially to run the activities of the school.
- Explains the roles of the school to the community, which helps teachers and community members come to a more harmonious relationship.
- They give their suggestions to the teachers concerning academic improvement and moral standard.
- Helps head teachers and their staff to maintain effective discipline among their students.

Parents surely want to know everything is going on well in the school, including the working staffs and the school management. The same goes with the teachers too. So the PTA in FMIPS works together towards creating a friendly and amiable atmosphere for the students.

On the part of parents and being part PTA, it helps the parents to know how the school works, problems faced by the children, and so on. The PTA works towards improving and enhancing the life of the students and the school as the whole.

Keeping in mind these aspects, DECENT CONVENT SCHOOL consider having a parent teacher association and leaves no stone unturned and encourage more and more parents suggestion and feedback for improving the school system effective and meaningful in every aspect of learning.
